

North Lincolnshire Museum

Visual Story

You can take a virtual tour of the site here: <https://northlincolnshiremuseum.co.uk/discover/virtual-tour/>

For information on accessibility: <http://northlincolnshiremuseum.co.uk/accessibility/>

Arriving at the Museum

There are two routes you can take to enter the museum.

You can walk around the front, along the path.

Or you can walk along the Vicarage Gardens.

The main entrance is on Oswald Road. The Museum opens at 10am Monday to Saturday, at 1pm on Sundays and closes at 4pm every day. It is free to come to the museum. You don't need to buy a ticket.

When you walk in you will see the Shop. A member of the team will say hello when you arrive.

You will see a skeleton of the Winterton Lady near the entrance.

This is where our toilets are too. We have male, female and accessible toilets with baby changing facilities. We have paper towels if you don't like using the hand dryer.

You may need to use our lift. One of the Museum team will help you to use it.

People

Staff at the Museum wear black shirts that say North Lincolnshire Museum. They are here to help you enjoy your visit.

Other people might be visiting the museum too.

Places to sit

near Dudley's
Den

near the Main Entrance

in the People's War Gallery

Stairs

We have two sets of stairs in the museum.

We also have a lift and accessibility ramp. See the museum accessibility web page and speak to a member of staff to find out more: <http://northlincolnshiremuseum.co.uk/accessibility/>

Things that stay the same

As you travel through the museum, you will see lots of exciting displays. Most of them stay the same.

Things that change

Our temporary exhibition space changes twice a year. Look at the museum website to find out about the exhibition that is on when you visit.

Sometimes different artists share their work in this space.

We decorate the museum for festivals like Halloween and Christmas. It can look different.

Calm Spaces

If you need a break, you might like to spend time in these spaces. They are all public spaces, so others may be using them at the same time.

Dudley's Den is an area for the Under 5's, so you may meet some little people here. You are welcome to use our sensory equipment if it supports you, no matter your age. It's on the Ground Floor.

If you need fresh air, we have tables and chairs in the Courtyard. The door is near the entrance.

There is a dark space in the Anderson Shelter in the People's War Gallery. However, there are lots of noises, like sirens, in here too. It's on the Ground Floor.

Things you might see around the Museum

Darker places

Local History

Anderson
Shelter

Brighter places

Dudley's
Den

Courtyard

Things you might touch around the Museum

You can touch
lots of our objects in brackets like these

There are lots of things in the Ironstone
Cottage

In some areas
you can play
and dress up

Things you might hear around the Museum

Walkie
talkies

Music from the record
player

Other people enjoying the Museum

Sirens near the Anderson
Shelter

Leaving the Museum

You will leave through the same door you arrived through.

We hope you had a brilliant time and will visit us again!